INFORMATION FOR AMERICAN VICTIMS OF CRIME IN GREECE

If you become the victim of a crime while visiting, traveling or residing in Greece staff of the Consular Services Section of the American Embassy in Athens or the American Consulate General in Thessaloniki are prepared to assist you.

What we can do:

- Help you replace a lost/stolen passport.
- Help you find appropriate medical care if you are injured.
- Assist you with emergency needs that arise as a result of the crime, such as finding shelter, food, or clothing.
- Help you contact family, friends, or employer if you wish to contact them.
- Explain how and where you can report the crime to local law enforcement officials.
- Provide you with general information about the criminal justice process in Greece.
- Provide you with information about resources for crime victims in Greece.
- Provide you with a list of attorneys who practice in Greece and who speak English.
- Provide you with information about crime victim assistance resources in your state of residence if you are returning to the U.S.

What we cannot do:

- Provide legal advice or represent you in court.
- Serve as an official foreign language interpreter or translator in legal proceedings.
- Pay legal fees or other expenses for you.
- Request preferential treatment for U.S. citizens in Greek legal proceedings.

General Information about the Criminal Justice Process in Greece:

- Crimes can be reported to the local police or to the prosecutor.
- The police and courts usually provide interpreters for victims and witnesses.
- If you report the crime to police we suggest you ask for a copy of the police report. This report can be helpful in submitting insurance claims and in applying for crime victim compensation in the U.S. Greece does not operate a compensation program for victims of crime.

- To obtain information about the progress of the criminal case in Greece, we recommend that victims of crime hire an attorney to represent their interests in the case. The victim's attorney may examine evidence, provide additional evidence to the prosecutor, inform the victim of case events, and request restitution from the offender for damages caused by the crime. If you desire, you may ask your attorney to update the consular section of the Embassy on case progress.
- During the pre-trial stage, the police take the victim's statement and investigate crimes. The victim may be asked to give additional evidence or another statement.
- Police reports of serious misdemeanors and felonies are sent to the examining magistrate who examines the evidence and may question the victims and witnesses.
- Trials are generally open to the public except for juvenile court proceedings.
- A panel of judges usually presides over a trial. Jury trials are rare in Greece.
- During the trial, the judges always require the victim appear in court, with the exception of small children. If the victim resides in the U.S. and is summoned to appear in court as a witness, the Greek government usually reimburses the victim for the cost of coach-class airfare from his/her home, class B hotel accommodations during the trial, and a small compensation payment for each day spent in court.
- In court the victim is typically questioned by the president of the court, the public prosecutor, the other members of the court, and the defense counsel. The victim's attorney may also participate in the trial by questioning witnesses.
- As far as the media are concerned, Greece generally has a tradition of outspoken public discourse and a vigorous free press. The mass media are known to publicize names and photographs of victims without their permission.

LIST OF ATTORNEYS

Americans seeking Consular advice and assistance in northern Greece (Macedonia and Western Thrace) should contact the U.S. Consulate in Thessaloniki for names of lawyers in the Thessaloniki area: the U.S. Consulate at 43 Tsimiski Street, Shopping Center “Platia”, 7th floor, GR- 546 43, Thessaloniki.

Americans in the rest of Greece may turn to the U.S. Embassy in Athens. The Athens Consular District comprises the following regions: Aitolokarnania, Arcadia, Argolis, Arta, Attica, Cyclades Islands, Dodecanese Islands, Evia, Evritania, Fokis, Fthiotis, Hios, Ilia, Ioannina, the island of Crete, Kefalonia, Kerkyra, Korinthia, Laconia, Lefkas, Lesbos including the island of Limnos, Magnisia, Messinia, Preveza, Samos, Thesprotia, Trikala and Zakynthos.

The Thessaloniki Consular District comprises the following regions: Thessaloniki, Halkidiki, Kastoria, Kozani, Grevena, Florina, Pieria, Emathia, Pella, Kilkis, Serres, Drama, Kavala, Xanthi, Larisa, Trikala, Karditsa, (and Mount Athos, and islands of Thassos and Samothrace).

The following attorneys enjoy a good reputation and speak English. The Embassy or Consulate cannot assume responsibility for their professional ability or integrity. If you have any complaints or concerns regarding any of the attorneys on this list, please contact us immediately. The attorneys are listed alphabetically, by town, and the order in which they appear has no other significance. All are Greek citizens, since under Greek law no alien may practice law in Greece. Please see the next page for additional advice on hiring a lawyer in Greece.

This list includes lawyers who handle criminal and civil (inheritance, divorce, etc.) cases; a separate list of lawyers specializing in business law is available from the Embassy's Commercial Section.

Before hiring a lawyer in Greece you should know the following:

We are providing this list of reputable attorneys licensed to practice in Greece with the understanding that you will select a legal representative with the same care that you would choose one in the United States. We advise the following:

When making your choice, please take into consideration whether you can easily communicate with the attorney and whether he/she appears responsive. The Embassy does not have the staff to handle or facilitate communications between you and your attorney. If your attorney does not speak English and you don't speak Greek, please arrange for a translator; you may be able to find one through a Greek Orthodox Church or the Greek Department of a local college or university.

Please make sure you and your attorney are in clear agreement on the services that will be provided for the fee you pay. The best way to ensure this is to have a written fee agreement. It is wise to keep records and receipts of all payments.

Please understand that the Greek legal system is substantially different in its procedures from the American. Although many aspects may seem strange to Americans, the basic principles are the same, and the Embassy is aware of no case in recent years in which Americans were discriminated against because of their nationality. Your problem will be handled more effectively if you work with your attorney in the framework of the Greek system, rather than if you expect things to be settled as they would be in the United States.

Be prepared for a lengthy process: Greek courts are very backlogged, and postponements and delays are very common. Especially in estate and property cases, a hearing may wait months (if not a year or longer); even criminal cases may take up to 18 months to come to trial. If there are special circumstances, your attorney can petition the court for an early trial or hearing date, but such requests are not always granted. The decision of the initial court is often appealed in Greece; in a civil case, however, an appeal cannot be filed until the initial decision is formally recorded by the court, a process that may take additional months. The Embassy or Consulate has no standing to intervene these processes.

Regarding telephone numbers:

To dial from the US to Athens: +30 210 and the number – Thessaloniki +30 2310 and no.

To dial from the US to an area outside of Athens: +30 2 plus the area code, which appears in parentheses.
